Champion Investments, Inc.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited)

Note 1 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Champion Investments, Inc. is a public company that specializes in identifying, developing and merging new, unique and disruptive ideas, technology, products and their organizations with investment capital. The Company's primary expertise and investment focus will be in the early stage or emerging sectors within the technology, medical and consumer product industries. Utilizing both private and public funds as well as the power of its own stock, the Company will seek to make strategic investments whereby all parties involved can expect to increase their revenues, profits and shareholder value, both in the short and long run. The Company anticipates execution of direct investments in two to five opportunities per year that correspond to and further enhance the overall long term vision and business model developed by the management team.

Basis of Presentation and Preparation

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company. Preparation of these condensed consolidated financial statements is on the cash basis of accounting. This is in conformity with other comprehensive basis of accounting (OCBOA) as recognized by SAS no. 62, Special Reports. Certain prior period amounts in the condensed consolidated financial statements and notes thereto have been reclassified to conform to the current period's presentation.

Fiscal Year

The Company's fiscal year for 2012 was 52 weeks and will also be 52 weeks in 2013. Unless otherwise stated, references to particular years, quarters or months refer to the Company's fiscal years ended in December and the associated quarters or months of those fiscal years.

Cash Basis

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Champion Investments, Inc. have been prepared on a cash basis.

Reclassifications

It is the policy of the Company to reclassify, where appropriate, prior year financial statements to conform to the current year presentation.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all highly liquid debt instruments with maturity of three months or less when purchased.

Notes Receivable

Notes receivable are carried net of an allowance for doubtful accounts.

Inventories

Inventories consist mainly of products purchased and are stated at the lower of cost or current market value.

Investments

Purchase and sale transactions are recorded on a trade date basis. Realized gains and losses are recognized on an average cost basis when securities are sold.

Note 1 – Income Taxes / Net Operating Loss Carry Forward

From 2005 through 2011, the Company had cumulative net losses of approximately $2.3 million.

For fiscal year 2012, the Company had a net loss of $5,945,987 as a direct result and final completion of its restructuring commencing in 2009. As a result, no Federal or Texas State Franchise taxes were due and payable.

In 2013 going forward, the Company will have a net operating loss carry forward in the amount of $8,978,412.

Note 2 – Shareholders' Equity and Share Based Compensation

Preferred Stock

During the calendar years of 2007 and 2008, previous management of the Company had issued fifty million shares of preferred stock to 6 individuals and 1 corporation. In 2012, all of the issued and outstanding preferred stock in the amount of fifty million shares was redeemed pursuant to an agreement between the Company and its outstanding shareholders of preferred stock dated March 11, 2009. As of December 31, 2012, all shares of preferred stock were submitted to First American Stock Transfer, Inc., stock transfer agent for the Company, for cancellation.

As of December 31, 2012, the Company had 50 million shares of authorized preferred stock, none of which is issued or outstanding. Under terms of the Company's Articles of Incorporation, the Board of Directors is authorized to determine or alter the rights, preferences, privileges and restrictions of the Company's authorized but unissued preferred stock.

Share Based Compensation.

Common Stock.

In 2012, in accordance with an agreement dated March 11, 2009 and subsequent negotiations between the Company and ECCO Green Team (predecessor corporation to Champion Investments, Inc.) other shareholders, vendors, lien holders and providers of legal, investor and consulting services from 2009-2012, the Company issued a total of 60,109,618 common shares of stock as further outlined and attached in Exhibit A in these footnotes. These shares were issued in lieu of cash as payment for professional accounting and legal fees, services, settlement of three past lawsuits, consulting services contract and past due rent.

As part of the agreement between the Company and ECCO Green Team (predecessor corporation to Champion Investments, Inc.) all ECCO Green Team shareholders covered under the agreement were required to redeem their common and preferred stock shares before receiving their new shares in the Company.

The Company finalized 24 negotiated settlements equal to approximately $6,010,961 requiring no cash outlays by the Company. Total shares issued pursuant to these settlements were 60,109,618 shares of common stock.

In 2012, the Company issued 68,000 shares of common stock in lieu of cash for investor relations services provided by KPG Consulting from 2009- 2011.

In 2012, the Company issued 17,000 shares of common stock in lieu of cash for investor relations services provided by KPG Consulting in 2012.

In 2012, the Company issued 2,950,000 shares of common stock in lieu of cash for legal services provided by Jerry Walker, Jr. from 2008 through 2012.

In 2012, the Company issued 120,000 shares of common stock in lieu of cash for consulting services provided by Reginal Spiller in 2009.

As of December 31, 2012, there are 780,000,000 shares of authorized common stock and 63,295,567 shares of issued common stock that have been issued.

Stock Options.

During the period 2005-2006, the predecessor company to Champion Investments, Inc. granted stock options to 6 individuals. The options granted were 1,840,000,000 common stock shares for approximately $100.00.

Current management has negotiated the elimination of the stock options with these 6 individuals.

On April 30, 2009, current management of the Company granted stock options to two individuals in the amount of 500,000 shares each at the option price of $.10 per share, which was the current price of the stock at the time of the issuance of these options. These options were granted for settlement of an outstanding invoice for consulting fees in the amount of $100,000.

The Company did not grant any stock options during 2012.

Note 3 - Dividend Program.

The Company paid no dividends during the twelve months ~~ending~~ ended December 31, 2012.

Note 4 – Accounts Receivable.

The Company has no accounts receivable outstanding as of December 31, 2012.

Note 5 - Corporate History.

A detailed history, timetable and additional information of the Company can be found in Exhibit B, which is attached to these footnotes.

Note 6 - Legal Proceedings.

As of December 31, 2012, the Company was not subject to any legal proceedings or claims.

Note 7 - Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements and Contractual Obligations.

The Company has not entered into any transactions with any ~~entities~~ entity whereby the Company has financial guarantees, subordinated retained interests or other contingent arrangements that expose the Company to material continuing risks, contingent liabilities, or any other obligation under a variable interest in an entity that provides financing, liquidity, market risk, or credit risk support to the Company.

Note 8 - Other Significant Transactions.

In calendar year 2012, under the terms of its restructuring plan, the Company wrote off-transactions that had been on the balance sheet of the predecessor corporation prior to change in control to the current management in March 2009 and prior to the name change to Champion Investments, Inc. on June 16, 2009.

A stock investment of $300,000.00 in Perricone Wileman Group dba AtomicX, a private energy beverage company, was carried on the balance sheet as an Other Asset. This investment was written off in calendar year 2012 due to the termination of this company's business operations.

The acquisition and implementation costs of a website for the predecessor corporation to the Company in the amount of $33,708.32 were carried on the balance sheet as an Other Asset. The website is no longer in existence and the associated above referenced costs were written off as an abandonment loss.

The acquisition costs of furniture and equipment born by the predecessor corporation in the amount of $202,885.76 was carried on the balance sheet as a Fixed Asset. The related physical assets were abandoned by the predecessor corporation and are not in existence. The related costs referred to above were written off as an abandonment loss.

A 2007 loan from Dorothy Karney to the predecessor corporation in the amount of $16,000.00 was carried on the books as part of Current Liabilities – Loans. This loan has been treated as forgiven by Ms. Karney and the related debt forgiveness recorded as part of Miscellaneous Income for calendar year 2012.

Claims against the predecessor corporation by 9 vendors relating to outstanding payables from years 2005 thru 2008 in the amount of $33,226.97 were carried on the books as part of Current Liabilities. These claims were forgiven during calendar year 2012 and the related debt forgiveness recorded as part of Miscellaneous Income for that year.

Note 9. Related Party Transactions.

On May 15th, 2009, the Company entered into an agreement with AmeriFinancial, a Houston, Texas based advisory firm, for the purposes of renegotiating the capital structure of the Company, restructuring the outstanding liabilities, liens and judgments against the Company, obtaining initial or additional financing for the Company or obtaining a purchase or sale of the Company's assets. The Managing Director of AmeriFinancial is Steven Morgan. Mr. Morgan also holds the positions of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

The contract between AmeriFinancial and the Company calls for payment of $150,000 in cash to AmeriFinancial as well as fees of 5% of total savings achieved in the total overall reduction of the liabilities of the Company. In lieu of cash fees, the contract calls for AmeriFinancial to be paid in common stock of the Company. The number of shares due AmeriFinancial is calculated by taking the total savings achieved by the Company multiplied by 5% and then using a price of $.10 per share to determine the number of shares of common stock to be paid.

No cash payments have been made by the Company to AmeriFinancial or its' officers, directors or employees.

As of December 31, 2012 a summary of the work performed by AmeriFinancial has been as follows:

1. The return and redemption of all outstanding preferred and common stock issued to 10 shareholders prior to April 30, 2009.
