Champion Investments, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1. Organization

Champion Investments, Inc. is an internally managed management investment company that has elected to be regulated as a business development company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, or the 1940 Act.

The Company intends to make investments in US-based early stage, emerging and small to middle-market enterprises in the technology, medical, life sciences and consumer sectors with revenues or valuations of less than $25 million.

The Company's investment objective is to generate current income and capital appreciation by investing primarily in talented and proven entrepreneurial managers and firms who are in need of additional financial resources, minority-ownership capital or management expertise to assist them in the continued expansion and successful growth of their businesses.

The investment strategies of Champion Investments, Inc. will focus on the best opportunities for its shareholders in four investment core categories: Micro-Investments, Recapitalizations, Special Growth and Acquisitions. By employing these multiple investment strategies, the Company's model is intended to increase its flexibility to capitalize on opportunistic investments and exits, while mitigating relative risk. The management team of the Company believes these high-impact, relatively lower investment categories are currently underserved by traditional sources of individual and institutional investors.

The Company seeks to create a diverse portfolio that includes secured convertible loans, options, warrants or minority equity securities by primarily investing approximately $100,000 to $500,000 of capital, on average, and Company stock in the securities of early stage and emerging companies. The Company may also selectively invest more than these amounts in some of the Company's future portfolio companies and generally expect that the size of the Company's individual investments will vary proportionately with the size of the Company's capital base.

To execute these diversified strategies, the Company has assembled a management team comprised of expertise in early-stage investment funding in medical, technology and retail product organizations and emerging small business marketing and management organizations.

As of December 31, 2013, the Company's portfolio at fair value was comprised of equity investments purchased with common stock of the Company valued at $.10 per share. Investments were made in a medical products firm, THRUPHARMA, LLC. dba pharmaCline, a life science company specializing in pathogen genomics, bioinformatics and therapeutics and Active Faith, Inc., a consumer sports apparel firm.

As of December, 2013, the Company had equity investments in these two portfolio enterprises, respectively with an estimated fair market value of $457,500.

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies and Recent Accounting Updates

Basis of presentation

The accompanying financial statements of the Company and related financial information have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and pursuant to the requirements for reporting on Form 10-K. In the opinion of management, the consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments and reclassifications consisting solely of normal accruals that are necessary for the fair presentation of financial results as of and for the periods presented.

Fair value of financial instruments

The Company applies fair value to all of its financial instruments. Fair value is a market-based measure considered from the perspective of the market participant who holds the financial instrument rather than an entity specific measure. Therefore, when market assumptions are not readily available, the Company's own assumptions are set to reflect those that management believes market participants would use in pricing the financial instrument at the measurement date. The availability of observable inputs can vary depending on the financial instrument and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of product, whether the product is new, whether the product is traded on an active exchange or in the secondary market and the current market conditions. To the extent that the valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment.

The levels of fair value inputs used to measure our investments are characterized in accordance with the fair value hierarchy established by ASC 820. Where inputs for an asset fall in more than one level in the fair value hierarchy, the investment is classified in its entirety based on the lowest level input that is significant to that investment's fair value measurement. The Company uses judgment and considers factors specific to the investment in determining the significance of an input to a fair value measurement. Our policy is to recognize transfers in and out of levels as of the beginning of each reporting period. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy and investments that fall into each of the levels are described below:

Level 1: Level 1 inputs are unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical, unrestricted assets.

Level 2: Level 2 inputs are inputs, other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Level 3 inputs are unobservable and cannot be corroborated by observable market data.

The following fair value hierarchy tables sets forth our assets that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level as of as of December 31, 2013. The Company did not have any investments during the calendar year 2012.

The Company values its current investments in non-publically traded companies based on its knowledge of recent sales in private placement transactions adjusted for factors management feels is appropriate.

Any changes to the valuation methodology are reviewed by management and the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") to confirm that the changes are appropriate. As markets change, new products develop and the pricing for products becomes more or less transparent, the Company will continue to refine its valuation methodologies.

Use of estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Consolidation

The Company will generally not consolidate its investment in a company other than an investment company subsidiary or a controlled operating company whose business consists of providing services to the Company.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less at the date of acquisition. The Company deposits its cash in financial institutions and, at times, such balances could be in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insurance limits.

Revenue recognition

Investments and related investment income

Interest income is accrued by the Company based upon the outstanding principal amount and contractual interest terms of its investments. In addition, the Company may generate revenue in the form of commitment, origination, amendment, structuring or due diligence fees, fees for providing managerial assistance and consulting fees. Original issue discounts and market discounts or premium are capitalized, and the Company accretes or amortizes such amounts over the life of the loan as interest income. All other income is recorded into income when earned.

For the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, the Company had no interest income.

Investment transactions are accounted for on a trade-date basis. Realized gains or losses on investments are measured by the difference between the net proceeds from the disposition and the cost basis of investment, without regard to unrealized gains or losses previously recognized. The Company reports current period changes in fair value of investments that are measured at fair value as a component of the net change in unrealized appreciation (depreciation) on investments in the statements of operations.

Dividends and distributions

Dividends and distributions to common stockholders are recorded on the record date. The amount to be paid out as a dividend or distribution is determined by the Board of Directors and is based upon the earnings estimated by management.

For the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, the Company did not pay any dividends or distributions to the common stockholders.

Deferred financing costs

Deferred financing costs represent fees and other direct incremental costs incurred in connection with the Company's borrowings. These amounts are amortized and included in interest expense in the consolidated statements of operations over the estimated average life of the borrowings.

As of December 31, 2013 and 2012, the Company had no deferred financing costs, respectively.

Amortization expense

For the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012 the Company had no amortization costs, respectively.

Deferred offering costs

Deferred offering costs consist of fees paid in relation to legal, accounting, regulatory and printing work completed in preparation of equity offerings. Deferred offering costs are charged against the proceeds from equity offerings when received. As of December 31, 2013 and 2012, the Company had no deferred offering costs, respectively.

Stock-based compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based awards to employees using the fair value based method to determine compensation for all arrangements where shares of stock or equity instruments are issued for compensation.

In addition, the Company accounts for stock-based compensation to nonemployees in accordance with the accounting guidance for equity instruments that are issued to others than employees.

For the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, the Company did not issue any stock or stock options in lieu of cash as employee compensation.

For the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, the Company issued stock in lieu of cash as settlements of liabilities, services provided and other matters to nonemployees at the price of $.10 per share, which was the average prevailing price of the stock listed on the OTC Pink Market exchange from 2010-2013.

In the future, the Company intends to use a similar option pricing model to the Black-Scholes option-pricing model to determine the fair value of each option grant as of the date of grant for expense incurred. The Black-Scholes model requires inputs for risk-free interest rate, dividend yield, expected stock price volatility and expected life of the options. Expected stock price volatility is based on historical volatility of the Company's stock and the stock of the Company's peer companies. The risk-free interest rate for periods within the contractual life of the option is based on the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of the grant. The expected life for options granted represents the period of time that options granted are expected to be outstanding and is derived from the contractual terms of the options granted.

Income taxes

Income taxes are accounted for using the asset and liability approach in accordance with FASB Topic 740, Income Taxes ("ASC 740"). Deferred tax assets and liabilities reflect the impact of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities and their tax basis and are stated at tax rates expected to be in effect when taxes are actually paid or recovered. Deferred tax assets are also recorded for net operating losses, capital losses and any tax credit carryforwards. A valuation allowance is provided against a deferred tax asset when it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. All available evidence, both positive and negative, is considered to determine whether a valuation allowance for deferred tax assets is needed. Items considered in determining our valuation allowance include expectations of future earnings of the appropriate tax character, recent historical financial results, tax planning strategies, the length of statutory carryforward periods and the expected timing of the reversal of temporary differences. Under ASC 740, forming a conclusion that a valuation allowance is not needed is difficult when there is negative evidence, such as cumulative losses in recent years.

The Company recognizes tax benefits of uncertain tax positions only when the position is more likely than not to be sustained assuming examination by tax authorities. We record income tax related interest and penalties, if applicable, within current income tax expense.

Recent accounting pronouncements

In June 2013, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2013-08, Financial Services — Investment Companies (Topic 946): Amendments to the Scope, Measurement and Disclosure Requirements ("ASU 2013-08"), containing new guidance on assessing whether an entity is an investment company, requiring non-controlling ownership interest in investment companies to be measured at fair value and requiring certain additional disclosures. This guidance is effective for annual and interim periods beginning on or after December 15, 2013. The Company does not expect ASU 2013-08 to have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial position or disclosures.

Note 3. Related Party Transactions

On March 11, 2009, the predecessor corporation to Champion Investments, ECO Green Team, Inc., entered into a settlement agreement with AmeriFinancial regarding outstanding compensation due to AmeriFinancial from the periods of 2005 through 2008. Under this agreement, AmeriFinancial assumed the majority control of ECO Green Team, Inc. and received 34,000,000 shares of common stock of ECO Green Team, Inc.

From May 15, 2009 through May 14, 2014, the Company entered into annual contracts with KGP Consulting, LLC for various investor relations and other services. KGP Consulting, LLC is owned by Kerri Parsons, who is also the Vice President of Investor Relations for the Company. On July 10, 2012, the Company issued 68,000 common stock shares to Kerri Parsons and 17,000 common stock shares on September 13, 2013 to Kerri Parsons for work performed by KGP Consulting, LLC from the periods of May 15, 2009 through May 14, 2013.

On May 15th, 2009, the Company entered into an agreement with AmeriFinancial, a Houston, Texas based advisory firm, for the purposes of renegotiating the capital structure of the Company, restructuring the outstanding liabilities, liens and judgments against the Company, obtaining initial or additional financing for the Company or obtaining a purchase or sale of the Company's assets. The Managing Director of AmeriFinancial is Steven Morgan. Mr. Morgan also holds the positions of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

The contract between AmeriFinancial and the Company called for payment of $150,000 in cash to AmeriFinancial as well as fees of 5% of total savings achieved in the total overall reduction of the liabilities of the Company. In lieu of cash fees, the contract called for AmeriFinancial to be paid in common stock of the Company. The number of shares due AmeriFinancial was calculated by taking the total savings achieved by the Company multiplied by 5% and then using a price of $.10 per share to determine the number of shares of common stock to be paid.

Based on the above referenced calculation, AmeriFinancial was issued 3,900,000 shares of common stock in May 2013 for work performed for the period March 2009 thru April 2013. Components of the calculation included elimination of predecessor issued preferred stock, elimination of predecessor issued stock options, negotiated settlements regarding liens, law suits, past due payables, loans and professional fees. No cash payments were made by the Company to AmeriFinancial or its' officers, directors or employees. A summary of these components is as follows:

1. The return and redemption of all outstanding preferred and common stock issued to 10 shareholders prior to April 30, 2009.
2. Elimination of 50,000,000 shares of preferred stock and approximately 490,000 shares of common stock.
3. Elimination of 1,840,000,000 stock options.
4. Settlement of $6,020,962 in outstanding liens, lawsuits and payables.
5. Issuance of 60,109,618 shares of stock in lieu of cash as settlements.
6. SEC Investigation submissions and settlement.
7. Review and analysis of all bank statements and individual checks for Years 2005-2013.
8. Preparation of Financial Statements for years 2005-2013.
9. Various submissions to FINRA regarding name change and stock symbol change.
10. Preparation and filing of all Federal and State Tax Returns for years 2005-2012.
11. Submission to State of Nevada regarding Name Change.
12. Negotiation of cash settlement to stock transfer agent.
13. Write-off of abandoned equipment, stock investments and web site.
14. Various submissions of required State of Nevada Forms and Fees for years 2009-2013.
15. Submission of all State of Texas Franchise Taxes for years 2005-2012.
16. Design, installation and maintenance of new Company web site beginning in 2009 and certain revisions from 2009-2013.

In 2013, the Company purchased common stock and membership interests in two corporations with a combined market value of $457,500 from AmeriFinancial and Kerri Parsons. These corporations are Active Faith, Inc. and Thru Pharma, LLC. Steven Morgan and Kerri Parsons hold officer positions in both AmeriFinancial and Champion Investments. The purchase price of the common stock and membership interest was paid in common stock shares of the Company in lieu of cash.

Related Party Loan Transactions.

During the period May 2009 through December 31, 2012, the Company was funded on a periodic and as needed basis by AmeriFinancial. The total amount of funding by AmeriFinancial to Champion Investments, Inc, through December 31, 2013 has been $29,157. This loan has interest payments in 2014 calculated at a 5% interest rate and has a maturity date of May 30, 2014.

There have been no salaries, wages, and shares of stock or fees paid by Champion Investments, Inc. to Steven Morgan as Managing Director of AmeriFinancial or as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Champion Investments, Inc. from May 2009 through December 31, 2013.

Note 4. Earnings (Loss) Per Share

	Years Ended December 31
	2013	2012
Loss Per Share Basic and Diluted	($427,886)	($5,329,333)
Denominator for basic and diluted weighted average shares:	67,794,300	28,599,576
Basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share	($0.01)	($0.19)

In accordance with the provisions of FASB ASC Topic 260, Earnings per Share, basic earnings per share (“EPS”) is computed by dividing earnings available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Other potentially dilutive common shares, and the related impact to earnings, are considered when calculating EPS on a diluted basis. In computing diluted EPS, only potential common shares that are dilutive, those that reduce earnings per share or increase loss per share, are included. The effect of stock options, unvested employee stock awards and contingently issuable shares are not included if the result would be anti-dilutive.

At December 31, 2013 and 2012, options to purchase an aggregate 1,000,000 shares of the Company’s common stock was not included as they would be anti-dilutive.

Note 5. Investments

The following fair value hierarchy set for the Company's assets that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level as of December 31, 2013 and 2012.

Ending Balance December 31, 2013	$457,500	$0

 Pursuant to fair value measurement and disclosure guidance, the Company currently categorizes investment by class as shown above.

Note 6. Borrowings

In accordance with the 1940 Act, with certain limited exceptions, the Company is only allowed to borrow amounts such that its asset coverage, as defined in the 1940 Act, is at least 200% after such borrowing. As of December 31, 2013, the Company's asset coverage for borrowed amounts far exceeded the 200% threshold.

Note 7. Federal Income Tax Matters

For the years ended December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively, the Company had a net loss of $427,886 and $5,329,333 as a direct result and final completion of its restructuring commencing in 2009. As a result, no Federal or Texas State Franchise taxes were due and payable. Accordingly, no provision for federal income tax was made in the financial statements for years ending 2013 and 2012 respectively.

In assessing the reliability of deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences become deductible. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, projected future results of operations and tax planning strategies in making this assessment. Based upon the level of historical tax income, significant book losses during the current and prior periods and projections for future results of operations over the periods in which the deferred tax assets are deductible, among other factors, management concluded that, at this time, that the Company did not meet the "more likely than not" requirement in ASC 740 in order to recognize deferred tax assets and a valuation allowance has been recorded for the full amount of our net deferred tax assets at December 31, 2013 and 2012.

During the periods of 2014 and thereafter, the Company will continue to assess the realizability of our deferred tax assets based on consideration of actual and projected operating results and tax planning strategies. Should actual operations improve, the amount of the deferred tax asset considered more likely than not to be realizable could be increased.

Income tax expense was different from the amounts computed by applying U.S. Federal income tax of 35% to pretax income as a result of the following:

	Years Ended December 31
	2013	2012
Federal statutory rate.....	35.0%	35.0%
Less valuation allowance.....	-35.0%	-35.0%
Effective income tax rate.....	0%	0%

Deferred tax assets are comprised of the following at December 31, 2013.

	Years Ended December 31
	2013	2012
Deferred Tax Assets
Net operating loss carryforwards.....	$3,112,192	$2,962,342
Less: valuation allowances.....	(3,112,192)	(2,962,342)
Net deferred tax assets.....	$0	$0

The Company has net operating loss carryovers as of December 31, 2013 in the amount of $8,891,977 for Federal income tax purposes. If not utilized, the tax net operating loss carryforwards will expire during 2025 through 2033.

Due to this tax loss carry forward, the Company has not elected to be treated as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code regarding its status as a business development company, and as a result will not be obligated to distribute substantially all of its respective net taxable income to its shareholders.

Note 8. Commitments and Contingencies

Commitments

The Company had no outstanding commitments to fund investments as of December 31, 2013 and 2012, respectively.

Indemnifications

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into contracts and agreements that contain a variety of representations and warranties that provide general indemnifications. The Company's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown, as these involve future claims that may be made against the Company but that have not occurred. The Company expects the risk of any future obligations under these indemnifications to be remote.

Off-balance sheet risk

Off-balance sheet risk refers to an unrecorded potential liability that may result in a future obligation or loss, even though it does not appear on the statements of financial condition.
