Part C: Business Information

Introduction

Champion Investments, Inc. is a publically traded investment firm that has elected to be treated as a Business Development Corporation. The Company specializes in identifying, developing and merging new, unique, disruptive and twenty first century ideas with investment capital. The Company's primary expertise and investment focus is in early-stage or emerging sectors within the technology, medical and consumer-oriented industries.

Utilizing both public and private funds as well as the influence of its own stock, the Company seeks to make strategic investments whereby all parties involved can expect to increase their revenues, profits and shareholder value, both in the short and long run.

Business Model

The Company's business model is predicated on investing and partnering with talented, proven and entrepreneurial executives. Through these partnerships and execution of its proprietary investment strategies, the Company intends to generate exceptional assets and achieve substantial returns for our shareholders.

The Company expects to execute direct investments in up to nine opportunities per year that correspond to and further enhance the overall long-term vision and business model developed by the Company's management team and strategic partners.

The Company's proprietary investment strategies will be concentrated in high-impact categories that are currently under-served by traditional sources of individual and institutional investors. In these categories, the Company expects to utilize its expertise and flexibility in order to capitalize on opportunistic investments and exits, while mitigating its downside risk.

Current Portfolio

In 2013, the Company completed two investments in the firms of Active Faith, Inc. and ThruPharma, LLC., dba Dakota Life Sciences, utilizing its public stock as a vehicle for these investment acquisitions.

Dakota Life Sciences is an anti-infective private pharmaceutical Company with award-winning products designed to provide the highest efficacy for global patients at high risk of suffering from dangerous microbial and fungal infections.

The Company was founded based on its topical penetrating technology for drug delivery. That technology, referred to as Site Specific Penetration Technology (SSPT™) has received multiple prestigious awards such as the Edison Award for Innovation; Stevie Award for Innovation; and the Best Pharmaceutical of 2012 by the leading retail pharmaceutical publication, Drug Store News.

Active Faith, Inc. is a unique and innovative emerging Company that intends to rapidly penetrate and capitalize upon the large national and international Christian marketplace with its creative brands and high-quality, celebrity-endorsed products, merchandise and sponsored events.

In 2012, Active Faith productively launched its first brand and respective line of sports apparel and accessory products under the Active Faith Sports™ trade name with the intention of capturing significant revenues from online sales, the largest, target-specific, Christian churches, colleges, high schools, churches, organizations and groups within the United States.

The management team believes these Micro-Investment transactions can produce excellent return and exit opportunities for the Company and its shareholders.
